Dear Friends,

My office frequently hears from people who need help navigating the maze of state and local government. Whether it's trying to find affordable health care or finding information about a business, I hope this guide provides you and your family with a useful reference.

If you don't find what you need here, remember that my office is always available to respond to questions or provide assistance as well.

In addition, I hope you'll take a few moments to fill out the attached postcard and let me know what's on your mind as we move through the 2008 legislative session. I always appreciate hearing from you.

Sincerely,

Representative Pat Sullivan
